

Fleet Case Analysis Dashboard

Parts availability is the primary driver of case delays (58%), while a high concentration of open cases is observed across specific dealers, indicating supply and operational inefficiencies.

4 out of 5 longest open cases are driven by availability issues, indicating that parts/supply constraints are the main cause of delays.